

---

The BC Compassion Club is a consensus run, not-for-profit organization that meets the holistic healing needs of a large and growing community. We are looking for caring and committed individuals to join our staff collective.

Currently we are hiring front line support staff in our Distribution Centre for Saturday, Sunday and Monday shifts as well as relief over the upcoming holidays.

We need compassionate, skilled communicators who are great at multi-tasking. We are looking for people who are grounded and easy-going, ready to handle a mix of cash duties, customer service and frontline social work. Previous reception or scheduling experience is a plus. Candidates will be expected to be familiar with computer programs (MS Word, Excel).

Familiarity with cannabis and / or holistic health care is an asset. Experience in social work, consensus, or activism preferred. Additionally, we expect all staff to participate in the overall organizing, cleaning and functioning of the organization. Police Information Checks for Vulnerable Sector will be required upon hire, as required by the City of Vancouver.

We offer a basic starting wage of $16 per hour for all positions with generous in-house and extended benefits available. Must be available weekends and over the holidays.

To receive a copy of our application, please send an email request with the subject line DISTROBUTION to info@thecompassionclub.org or ask for one in person at 2995 Commercial Drive, in East Vancouver, Coast Salish Territories.

Deadline for applications is Tuesday, November 21st, 2017. Applications will only be accepted if accompanied by a resume and cover letter.

Only short-listed applicants will be contacted. For more information on the organization, visit our webpage: www.thecompassionclub.org.

The BCCCS encourages applications from all qualified candidates including/prioritizing women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, members of sexual minorities, and persons with disabilities.